

Nominations Invited for 2010 AAG Honors

The AAG Honors Committee invites nominations for AAG Honors to be conferred in 2010. AAG Honors are awarded in recognition of outstanding contributions to the advancement or welfare of the profession in six categories: Lifetime Achievement Honors, Distinguished Scholarship Honors, Distinguished Teaching Honors, Ronald F. Abler Distinguished Service Honors, Gilbert Grosvenor Honors for Geography Education, and Gilbert F. White Distinguished Public Service Honors.

Normally, no more than one award will be made in each category of AAG Honors. No more than six individuals may be recommended for AAG Honors in a single year. In addition to honors, the committee may recommend a Publication Award and a Media Achievement Award each year.

Nominees must be AAG members if they are residents of the United States; if they reside elsewhere the membership requirement is waived. In some cases professionals from other disciplines or professions are eligible for consideration. Geographers or other professionals previously honored may be nominated again for distinction achieved since their first awards.

The deadline for nominations is June 30, 2009. See the handbook section of a recent issue of the Guide to Geography Programs in the Americas for a complete list of past honors award recipients or consult the website at www.aag.org/grantsawards/aag_honors.cfm.

Please submit a nominating letter and the candidate's CV to Patricia Solís at psolis@aag.org. Digital submissions are preferred. Alternatively, hard copies may be faxed (202-234-2744) or mailed to AAG Honors, Association of American Geographers, 1710 Sixteenth Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20009-3198.

The 2010 Honors Committee: Edward Malecki (Chair), The Ohio State University; Kelley Crews-Meyer, University of Texas at Austin; Maureen Hays-Mitchell, Colgate University; Paul Knox, Virginia Tech; Frank Magilligan, Dartmouth College; Barney Warf, Florida State University.
