

AAG Sponsored Grants and Awards Programs

For Students

Undergraduates

- AAG International Geographic Information Fund
offers student travel, research, or paper awards in GIS / spatial analysis
- Community College Travel Grants
brings two-year students to AAG's annual meeting
- Darrel Hess Community College Geography Scholarships assist students to transfer into bachelor programs
- Marble-Boyle Undergraduate Achievement Awards in Geographic Science recognizes academic performance and leadership
- Mel Marcus Fund for Physical Geography
supports field-based research by faculty with students (professors apply)
- Todd Reynolds Memorial Fund
provides aid to members and conference attendees with disabilities
- Specialty/Affinity Group Competitions
for travel grants and paper awards to members belonging to AAG's various expertise groups

Graduate Students

- AAG Dissertation Research Grants
fund thesis or dissertation expenses
- AAG International Geographic Information Fund
offers student travel, research, or paper awards in GIS / spatial analysis
- Anne U. White Fund
sponsors domestic partners joining AAG members in fieldwork
- Garrison Award for Best Dissertation in Computational Geography encourages innovative graduate research
- George and Viola Hoffman Award finances graduate research in Eastern Europe
- Mel Marcus Fund for Physical Geography
supports field-based research by faculty with students (professors apply)
- Nystrom Award
recognizes meritorious recent geography dissertations
- Todd Reynolds Memorial Fund
provides aid to members and conference attendees with disabilities
- Specialty/Affinity Group Competitions
for members belonging to AAG's various expertise groups

For Scholars and Professionals

Grants

- AAG Research Grants
fund geography research or fieldwork for members
- Anne U. White Fund
sponsors domestic partners joining AAG members in fieldwork
- Mel Marcus Fund for Physical Geography
supports field-based research by faculty with students (professors apply)
- Enrichment Funds, AAG Annual Meeting
subsidizes non-geographers to attend our national conference
- Specialty/Affinity Group Competitions
for members of AAG's various expertise groups
- Visiting Geographical Scientist Program brings geography speakers to colleges and universities
- Other Grants and Awards Resources
Consult the AAG website for a listing and links to external sources of support, including to opportunities from government, foundation, and fellowship organizations

Recognition

- AAG Honors
are AAG's most prestigious awards for geographers
- Media Achievement Award
honors accomplishments publicizing geographic insights in mass communication
- Publication Award
honors publishers of geographic work
- Anderson Medal
recognizes applied and professional geographers
- Meredith F. Burrill Award rewards meritorious work with practical or policy applications
- Enhancing Diversity Award promotes inclusion and broadening participation
- Glenda Laws Award
honors outstanding research on social issues
- AAG E. Willard and Ruby S. Miller Award acknowledges special competence in teaching or research

For Authors

- AAG Globe Book Award for Public Understanding of Geography
- AAG Meridian Book Award for Outstanding Scholarly Work in Geography
- John Brinckerhoff Jackson Prize for conveying geographic insights to a lay audience

AAG

Association of American Geographers